Frontier Anglers Tennessee Expands Fly Fishing Services in East Tennessee Waters

May 05, 2026

May 05, 2026 -
Frontier Anglers Tennessee announces expanded guide services across multiple waterways throughout the Maryville and Knoxville regions, offering year-round fly fishing opportunities for anglers of all skill levels targeting smallmouth bass and trout.

The Maryville-based guide service has enhanced its offerings to include comprehensive float trips, wade trips, and jet boat excursions across the diverse waters of East Tennessee and the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. The expansion comes as demand for professional fly fishing guidance continues to grow in the region.

"East Tennessee provides some of the finest fly fishing opportunities in the country, with our mild climate allowing us to guide trips throughout the entire year," said a spokesperson for Frontier Anglers Tennessee. "Our expanded services ensure that whether someone is new to fly fishing or an experienced angler, they can access the best waters our region has to offer with professional guidance."

Frontier Anglers Fly Fishing TN specializes in targeting both smallmouth bass and trout across numerous rivers and streams. The company's guides hold United States Coast Guard captain licenses and maintain current certifications in CPR, first aid, and AED training, ensuring the highest standards of safety during all expeditions.

The service expansion includes enhanced float trip options utilizing drift boats and rafts on freestone streams and tailwaters, allowing anglers to cover extensive water areas that remain inaccessible from shore. Additionally, jet boat trips on larger rivers provide opportunities for those seeking to explore broader waterways at a faster pace.

During cooler months, the company offers specialized wade trips within the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, providing intimate access to pristine mountain streams. These trips complement the year-round float and jet boat services, ensuring diverse fishing experiences regardless of the season.

Frontier Anglers latest adventures have taken clients to various productive waters throughout the region, with guides sharing their extensive knowledge of local fishing conditions, techniques, and seasonal patterns. The company maintains regular fishing reports to keep anglers informed about current conditions across their service areas.

The company's booking system allows for convenient trip planning, with options ranging from half-day excursions to full-day adventures. Each trip is customized based on angler preferences, skill level, and target species, ensuring optimal fishing experiences throughout the diverse waters of East Tennessee.

Those interested in learning about past client experiences can Read Frontier Anglers Reviews, which highlight the company's commitment to creating memorable fishing experiences. The reviews consistently note the guides' professionalism, knowledge of local waters, and ability to work with anglers at every skill level.

Frontier Anglers Tennessee operates as a full-service fly fishing guide company serving the Maryville, Knoxville, and surrounding East Tennessee areas. The company specializes in both smallmouth bass and trout fishing, offering professional guide services on multiple rivers and streams throughout the region, including waters within the Great Smoky Mountains National Park.
