Anfesa's Jewelers Launches 2026 Mother's Day Giveaway Celebrating Community Stories

May 06, 2026

GARNER, NC - May 06, 2026 -

Anfesa's Jewelers has launched its 2026 Mother's Day Giveaway, inviting participants to share personal stories and photographs featuring their mothers, along with a favorite quote or saying. The initiative runs with submissions accepted from April 30 through May 4, 2026, followed by public voting from May 5 to May 9, 2026. One winner will receive a designer jewelry set valued at more than $500, selected based on the highest combined number of likes across Facebook and Instagram entries.

Participants submit a photo along with a short description highlighting a memorable interaction or cherished phrase associated with their mother. Entries are displayed publicly on the store's social media channels, allowing community members to view and support submissions by liking them. This format encourages engagement among families in the Triangle area while recognizing the role of jewelry in commemorating relationships.

The giveaway builds on Anfesa's Jewelers' ongoing involvement in local traditions and family milestones. Many previous participants have noted how such contests provide opportunities to reflect on personal connections and share them with others in the region. The selected winner will be announced following the voting period, with the prize presented in time for Mother's Day celebrations.

Anfesa's Jewelers has facilitated customer stories for over three decades through its services and community events. The store offers selections that include engagement rings, custom designs, and fine jewelry suitable for gifting on occasions such as Mother's Day. Its location supports access for residents seeking items that mark important family moments.

"This Mother's Day Giveaway allows us to celebrate the stories that connect families in our community," said Anfesa Matthews, Owner of Anfesa's Jewelers. "We look forward to seeing the diverse submissions and the ways in which participants honor their mothers through shared memories."

The process remains straightforward, with entries collected via forms linked on the store's social platforms. Voting relies on organic likes to ensure broad participation without additional requirements. This approach has proven effective in previous contests for fostering positive interactions among local residents.

"Community initiatives like this one strengthen ties by giving people a platform to express appreciation for their loved ones," said Anfesa Matthews, Owner of Anfesa's Jewelers. "It aligns with how jewelry often serves as a tangible reminder of those special relationships."

In conjunction with the giveaway, Anfesa's Jewelers continues to offer custom jewelry design services, allowing clients to collaborate on personalized pieces. The on-site repair facility, staffed by master jewelers, handles maintenance and restorations for both new and existing items. Additional offerings include appraisals, gold evaluations, and selections of watches such as certified pre-owned Rolex watches in Raleigh, NC.

The business operates as a family-owned establishment founded in 1993 in Garner, North Carolina. Over the years, it has expanded its inventory and expertise while focusing on the Triangle region. The store emphasizes quality craftsmanship and personalized service, assisting multiple generations with jewelry needs for celebrations and daily wear.

Anfesa's Jewelers has hosted similar community-focused activities, including seasonal events and story-sharing contests. These efforts contribute to its role as a gathering point for residents interested in fine jewelry and family-oriented traditions. The current giveaway continues this pattern by centering on maternal relationships and shared experiences. Local families often find inspiration in these stories, fostering a sense of connection and continuity within the community, enriching the overall experience at the store.
