April 18, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Leven Rose, a natural beauty company located in Colorado Springs, CO, launched their new facial toner and acne controller - Lavender Water. Lavender is a widely-known solution for both stress and sleep but may also be an effective remedy for breakouts and blemishes. This toner is best used after cleansing skin to shrink pores, balance pH, and restore an even skintone.

Courtney Olson of Leven Rose explains, "Lavender flowers have been used throughout history to remove dark spots, to balance the skin, and as therapy for a number of other ailments. Our toner is derived directly from lavender flowers. It is completely natural and pure, and offers all of the same benefits that people have been enjoying from lavender for centuries."

Lavender Water, comes in a four ounce bottle, and is 100 percent natural and pure. This flower water is both antibacterial and antifungal. It treats acne and helps to fight against bacteria and fungal infections. To read more, head to <https://www.levenrose.com/products/lavender-water-4-oz>.

This toner should be used as a skin enhancer and among its many other benefits, can help reduce redness and inflammation on the skin. Olson shares that most toners are filled with alcohol and fragrances that can irritate the skin, instead of cleansing and hydrating. Leven Rose Lavender Water is free from all alcohols and any added fragrances, and acts as a powerful primer for your natural moisturizers and serums.

Leven Rose offers a number of organic and pure oils and flower waters, Lavender Water being one of the latest released. This toner, among all of their other products, does not contribute to oily skin, and is free of glycerin, parabens, and any man-made chemicals or additives.
