

Truth Limousine Services Celebrates Excellence in New Orleans Transportation with Perfect Customer Ratings

May 15, 2026

NEW ORLEANS, LA - May 15, 2026 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Truth Limousine Services, the locally-owned luxury transportation company founded by Johnny and Betty Noah, has achieved consistent Google Review 5-Star ratings while expanding its role as both a premium transportation provider and cultural ambassador for visitors to the Crescent City.

The new orleans limousine company, which began as a small operation focused on providing tours and cultural experiences for travelers, has grown into a comprehensive luxury transportation service while maintaining its founders' original vision of sharing the rich history and culture of New Orleans with every passenger. The company's fleet now includes vehicles ranging from GMC Denalis for intimate groups to limo buses accommodating 26 or more passengers.

"When we started Truth Limousine, we recognized that many visitors wanted more than just transportation?they wanted to understand and experience the authentic New Orleans," said Betty Noah, co-founder of Truth Limousine Services. "The drive from Louis Armstrong International Airport provides the perfect opportunity for our local chauffeurs to share their knowledge and passion for this incredible city, turning what could be just a ride into the beginning of an unforgettable New Orleans experience."

The company's commitment to excellence has resonated strongly with customers, as evidenced by its perfect rating based on 473 reviews. This achievement reflects not only the quality of the transportation services but also the unique value that Truth Limousine brings through its team of professional drivers who serve as informal guides and ambassadors for the city.

Truth Limousine Services offers a comprehensive range of transportation solutions, including airport transfers, corporate transportation, VIP transport and special event transportation. The company also provides specialized services such as airline crew transportation and charter services to LSU home games, demonstrating its versatility in meeting diverse transportation needs throughout the region.

The expansion from a small, tour-focused operation to a full-service luxury transportation provider represents a significant evolution for the Noah family's business. Despite this growth, the company has maintained its foundational commitment to delivering what they describe as a truly New Orleans experience, whether clients are visiting for business, pleasure, or special occasions.

The company's fleet diversity enables it to serve various client needs, from VIP transportation requiring discretion and high-end vehicles to group services for large corporate events or wedding parties. Each vehicle in the fleet is maintained to luxury standards, ensuring comfort and reliability for all passengers.

Truth Limousine Services operates 24 hours a day, providing round-the-clock availability for clients with varying schedules and transportation needs. This accessibility, combined with the company's emphasis on punctuality and professionalism, has made it a preferred choice for corporate clients and individual travelers alike.
