April 22, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Good News Mission Las Vegas Church in Nevada has announced the launch of their new website. Pastor Lim has issued a statement that the church's website is now up and running. "We're thrilled to be able to spread the Gospel online, with the ability to reach much more people than ever before," states the pastor.

Pastor Lim states that the church would like to formally invite anyone in the area to join them for services. Service times, as well as general contact information for the church, can be found on the new website.

This church in Las Vegas is offering a look at their various upcoming events via their new website as well, and the pastor states that all are invited to attend any of their events. "We gladly accept visitors, and once you've been through one of our services, we believe you'll consider yourself one of our family," the pastor adds.

The church provides a number of community charity projects as well, and information about volunteering to help in any capacity can be found on the new site. Pastor Lim also states that there is general information on the new site, designed to provide followers with inspiration and guidance. Articles, helpful tips, and various other topics of interest can be found, as well as general Gospel information.

The pastor says that this particular Christian Church Las Vegas residents can go to, proudly supports their local community and strives to offer words of wisdom and Christian guidance through various Gospel teachings and articles on the newly designed website. He states that those suffering or anyone in need should contact them for more information on the community services that their congregation offers.

Those interested in attending the Church Las Vegas has to offer can find location information, as well as various days and times of specific services by visiting the new website. The pastor states that they have a number of social media accounts linked to the church as well and those who would like to keep up with church happenings or connect with them on a more intimate level are welcome to join them on any of their social media pages.
