

Fresh Coat Painters of Eden Prairie Interviewed In inPAINT Magazine

April 21, 2016

April 21, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

A professional painting and deck refinishing company in Eden Prairie, MN, is proud to announce that they have been quoted in the inPAINT Feb/Mar 2016 issue. The quote can be found on page 27 of the publication. In the interview, the company highlights the importance of having professional painting contractor reps in place to provide customers with sound advice.

Jerry Fancher, owner of Fresh Coat Painters Eden Prairie, who was quoted in the article, says: "I'm really happy to have been featured in the inPAINT magazine. It was an opportunity, of course, to promote our own company, but also to pay some much due respect to our Sherwin Williams reps and the vital role that they play. Reps often get forgotten in the painting and decorating industry, as they are not the ones who actually get their hands dirty. But without them, we wouldn't be able to do what we do."

Fresh Coat Painters of Eden Prairie prides itself on the professional attitude that they have for every painting job they take on. Their website highlights their exclusive Customer Bill of Rights, which demonstrates the company's commitment to professionalism and quality work. Their philosophy is that customers deserve nothing but the best, and this shines through in everything that they do, including the interview in inPAINT

The work that the company does has been very highly praised. "I have known Jerry for many years and Jerry is very good at what he does," says Kim H. on the company's Google page. "He makes sure you know the cost and time it will take to get the work done and he was spot on. The work his company did was amazing and I will not have anyone other than Jerry do my painting from here on out. Thank you Jerry for the amazing painting job! I wake up every morning with a smile."

For the Eden Prairie painting company, reviews like Kim's are only possible because of the superior commitment their professional team of painting contractors deliver for every customer. The support of their reps is an added benefit of the level of expertise standing behind Jerry and his Fresh Coat painters.
