June 24, 2026 -

Nelson Exteriors, a family-owned exterior renovation company serving the North Metro Atlanta area, has earned the prestigious 2026 Guildmaster Award from GuildQuality, marking the third consecutive year the company has received this distinguished recognition for exceptional customer service. The award, which recognizes excellence in the residential construction industry, places the Marietta-based contractor among an elite group of service providers nationwide who consistently deliver superior customer experiences.

The Guildmaster Award represents one of the residential construction industry's most coveted honors, with recipients selected from nearly 2,000 eligible companies based on stringent customer satisfaction metrics. To qualify for the 2026 award, Nelson Exteriors maintained a customer recommendation rate exceeding 90 percent throughout the qualification period, demonstrating the company's unwavering commitment to quality craftsmanship and client satisfaction. This third consecutive win, following awards in 2024 and 2025, underscores the consistency and reliability that has defined the company's operations since becoming a GuildQuality member in 2013.

As a James Hardie siding contractor Atlanta residents have trusted for more than four decades, Nelson Exteriors has built its reputation on delivering comprehensive exterior renovation services with meticulous attention to detail. The company holds multiple industry certifications, including James Hardie Elite Preferred Contractor status, GAF Certified Contractor designation, TrexPro Gold Contractor certification, and Andersen Windows Certified Contractor credentials. These partnerships with leading manufacturers ensure that every project meets the highest standards of quality and durability.

"Receiving the Guildmaster Award for three consecutive years reflects our entire team's dedication to exceeding customer expectations on every project," said Scott Nelson, owner of Nelson Exteriors. "This recognition validates our commitment to maintaining the highest standards of craftsmanship and customer service that have been the foundation of our business since we began serving the North Metro Atlanta community."

The significance of this achievement extends beyond industry recognition, as it provides homeowners throughout the greater Atlanta area with an objective measure of contractor reliability and performance. GuildQuality's rigorous evaluation process involves comprehensive customer surveys and feedback analysis, ensuring that award recipients have consistently delivered exceptional service across all aspects of their operations. For Nelson Exteriors, this third consecutive award reinforces their position as one of the region's most trusted exterior renovation specialists.

As deck builders in Marietta and throughout the North Metro Atlanta area, Nelson Exteriors continues to expand its service offerings while maintaining the personalized attention and quality craftsmanship that earned this latest recognition. The company specializes in siding replacement, deck construction, window installation, roofing, exterior painting, and gutter systems, providing comprehensive solutions for homeowners seeking to enhance their property's exterior aesthetics and functionality.

Nelson Exteriors began operations in South Carolina in 1977 before establishing its Georgia presence in 1986. The company has since become a cornerstone of the North Metro Atlanta construction community, serving Marietta, Alpharetta, Roswell, Sandy Springs, and surrounding areas with professional exterior renovation services. As a licensed and insured contractor with more than 40 years of experience, Nelson Exteriors combines traditional craftsmanship values with modern materials and techniques to deliver lasting results for residential properties throughout the region.
