

David Mejia Colgan Expands Practice Areas Beyond Criminal Law

May 21, 2026

BRONX, NY - May 21, 2026 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The Law Office of David Mejia Colgan, Esq. announced the expansion of its legal services to include Family Law, Matrimonial Law, and Immigration Law, in addition to its established criminal defense practice.

The expansion broadens the firm's offerings for clients across New York City and New York State, with bilingual representation available in English and Spanish.

David Mejia Colgan, the firm's founding attorney, is a former Assistant District Attorney in Bronx County and has more than 25 years of experience practicing criminal law. Since leaving the District Attorney's Office, Mr. Colgan has built a private practice that handles criminal matters at the trial and appellate levels in state courts.

The expanded practice areas now include representation in the Family Courts of New York City and New York State, matrimonial matters such as divorce and related proceedings, and immigration matters involving applications for citizenship and removal defense. Mr. Colgan has appeared before the United States Immigration Courts in New York City, across New York State, and in several other jurisdictions throughout the country.

The Law Office of David Mejia Colgan is based in the Bronx and serves clients in surrounding New York City boroughs and across New York State. The firm handles matters in areas where criminal, family, and immigration law often intersect for individuals and families. The decision to formally expand into additional practice areas follows years of handling related matters for existing clients who frequently face overlapping legal issues. Mr. Colgan is fluent in Spanish and conducts client meetings, court appearances, and document review in either English or Spanish depending on client preference.

"Expanding into family and immigration law allows the firm to serve clients facing related legal issues under one roof, which is often the situation for the families we represent," said David Mejia Colgan, Esq., founding attorney of the Law Office of David Mejia Colgan. "The expanded practice is structured to handle related matters within a single firm rather than referring them out."

The expansion reflects the overlapping nature of legal matters faced by many New York City residents, where a single household may simultaneously navigate criminal proceedings, custody disputes, and immigration status questions. Criminal proceedings and immigration status can be connected for non-citizens, and family court matters sometimes overlap with criminal cases. Handling related matters within a single firm allows for coordination across proceedings when the same household is involved in multiple types of cases. Clients seeking representation in any of the firm's practice areas can schedule consultations through the firm's office in the Bronx.

Mr. Colgan's practice covers felony charges, misdemeanor cases, and post-conviction proceedings on the criminal side. His immigration practice includes naturalization applications, removal defense, and related petitions before the immigration courts. The firm's family law work includes custody, visitation, child support, and orders of protection in the Family Courts, while the matrimonial practice handles contested and uncontested divorce matters. All practice areas operate from the firm's Bronx office, with court appearances handled across the relevant venues in New York City and New York State.

The Law Office of David Mejia Colgan, Esq. provides legal representation in criminal defense, family law, matrimonial law, and immigration law to clients throughout New York City and New York State. The firm was founded by David Mejia Colgan, an attorney with over 25 years of legal experience, and offers representation in English and Spanish.
