

Real Clean Expands Service Availability Throughout Utah County

May 21, 2026

PROVO, UT - May 21, 2026 -
Real Clean, a women-owned cleaning company serving Utah communities, announces expanded service availability throughout Utah County, reinforcing its commitment to providing comprehensive cleaning solutions for residential and commercial properties across the region.

The Salt Lake City-based company has strengthened its presence in Utah County to meet growing demand for professional cleaning services, including specialized offerings such as post-construction cleanup, deep cleaning, and emergency response services. The expansion ensures that homes, businesses, and rental properties throughout the area have access to reliable, eco-friendly cleaning solutions.

"Utah County has experienced significant growth in both residential and commercial development, creating an increased need for professional cleaning services," said Jazz Bader, Operations Director at Real Clean. "Our expanded availability ensures that property owners, businesses, and residents have access to the comprehensive cleaning support they need, whether for routine maintenance or specialized projects."

Real Clean in Provo serves as a central hub for the company's Utah County operations, offering a full range of services including standard house cleaning, move-in and move-out cleaning, commercial janitorial services, and post-construction cleanup. The company utilizes eco-friendly products and focuses on often-neglected areas to ensure thorough cleaning that promotes healthier indoor environments.

The expansion addresses several key market needs in Utah County. Property management companies require reliable partners for tenant turnovers and maintenance cleaning. Construction firms need specialized post-project cleanup services to prepare spaces for occupancy. Small businesses and offices seek consistent janitorial support to maintain professional environments for employees and customers.

Real Clean distinguishes itself through its comprehensive service offerings and flexible scheduling options. The company operates daily, accommodating both routine cleaning schedules and urgent cleanup needs. Their team handles projects ranging from small apartment cleanings to large commercial facilities, adapting their approach to meet specific client requirements.

"We understand that each client has unique cleaning needs and schedules," added Bader. "Our expanded presence in Utah County allows us to provide more responsive service while maintaining the quality standards our clients expect. Whether someone needs regular house cleaning or emergency cleanup services, we have the capacity and expertise to help."

The company's services extend beyond traditional cleaning to include specialized solutions for various industries and situations. Post-construction cleaning removes dust, debris, and construction residue from newly built or renovated spaces. Deep cleaning services tackle accumulated grime in hard-to-reach areas, while emergency cleanup teams respond quickly to unexpected situations.

For commercial clients, Real Clean provides tailored janitorial services that maintain professional environments while using non-toxic cleaning supplies safe for employees and visitors. The company works with offices, retail spaces, and other commercial properties to develop customized cleaning programs that fit operational schedules and budgets.

Real Clean is a women-owned cleaning company based in Salt Lake City, Utah, serving residential and commercial clients throughout Salt Lake County and Utah County. The company specializes in comprehensive cleaning services including house cleaning, commercial cleaning, post-construction cleanup, and emergency response services, utilizing eco-friendly products and flexible scheduling to meet diverse client needs.
