April 22, 2016 -

Online marketing company YourProfitWeb, Inc. has launched new local marketing services. They now offer full service local SEO for businesses in the Syracuse area. Each business they work with is provided with a personalized, targeted SEO campaign to help them increase their online visibility and, ultimately, profitability.

Founder of YourProfitWeb, Inc., Andrew Wroblewski, says: "There are literally billions of websites on the internet, yet only a handful seem to attract real traffic. What we offer is a custom SEO solution that works by focusing on our clients' personal company goals and requirements. Through our work, the visibility of our clients' brand is increased, providing them with natural, organic traffic."

For YourProfitWeb, Inc., the goal is to make sure that their customers are able to increase the amount of organic traffic and leads. These can then easily be turned into real conversions and sales. In so doing, they maximize profit and thereby boost and grow their business. It has been observed that internet users believe that a business that ranks high in the search engines, particularly with Google, have greater credibility as well.

Syracuse businesses that have asked YourProfitWeb, Inc. to manage their SEO campaigns have been very positive about the results. "I just wanted to let you know about some amazing success my site has had," says

Brett on the company's website. "My main keyword has been sitting on page 7 or 8 for many months. It is now on page 3 in the big "G" out of 46,000,000. My next 2 keywords are on the first page out of 15,000,000. This my friends is powerful stuff. Thanks again guys. This has certainly cemented my faith in this system!"

It has been noted that 85% of websites are found through search engines and that 96% of online users start finding what they look for through the four major search engines, which are Google, Yahoo, Bing, and YouTube. For a business to be found through these websites, its credibility is increased, leading to a positive vicious circle, which results in further improving their rankings and, thereby, their credibility, and so on.
