April 25, 2016

April 25, 2016 -

Colorado based Express Employment Professionals has announced a list of openings in various industries throughout the Colorado Springs area. The temp agency provides assistance to both job seekers and employers in an effort to match the most qualified individuals with companies that need them.

Joseph Augusto, Interim Branch Manager with Express Employment Professionals - Colorado Springs, CO, says "Express Employment Professionals is one of the top staffing companies in the nation and your locally owned and operated Colorado Springs office is the only choice for your individual or business needs."

Augusto states that the agency currently has a number of positions available in a variety of industries including professional and manufacturing. He says that those interested in learning more or seeing the openings that they have should visit them on their official website or contact the company to schedule a consultation with a career specialist.

The temp agency in Colorado Springs, CO, has a staff of experienced counselors who can assist individuals in finding a job that meets their professional, educational, and personal needs. The company states that they work with all job seekers, as well as employers to help fill positions that companies in the area may have open.

Augusto says that the employment center in Colorado Springs, CO, works with area employers to help find individuals to fill positions that meet any company's stringent requirements. They make use of a qualification process that weeds out those who do not have the specific education or industry experience an employer may be searching for, ensuring that only the highest qualified individuals are chosen.

The temp agency states that they are currently working to fill a wide range of different job types, and that at this time they have several available, all with various educational and experience related requirements. Augusto states that anyone in search of a job should contact the agency to begin the application process.

Those interested can visit Express Employment Professionals at their Colorado Springs office. Those outside of the area can visit the company's official website to learn about other locations or to use the online job search feature.
