Wyldlife Pets, a business in Minneapolis, MN, has announced that their Bully Sticks for dogs can be used to alleviate separation anxiety. The company has indicated that they are committed to providing dogs and dog owners with the best in terms of health and happiness. Separation anxiety is a common thing in dogs, who can get very distressed whenever their human is away. Bully sticks have been observed to be beneficial as a long lasting treat, which helps to redirect the focus of the dog, resulting into a happier and mentally healthier pet. The company offers a range of natural pet chews to help achieve these benefits.

Dan Fernandez from Wyldlife Pets says: "As dog owners, we only want the best for our dogs. There is nothing worse than leaving your dog at home when you know it will be distressed and anxious. With our natural bully sticks, dog owners can provide their four legged friends with something to do, as well as giving them an instant reward for spending time alone. This leaves for both a happier and healthier dog."

The long lasting treat for dogs that has been created by Wyldlife Pets is a mix pack of bully sticks and tendons. The gourmet treats are both tasty and healthy, meaning dog owners can rest assured they are not causing any harm to their pet. The tendons and bully sticks are 100% natural and do not include any additives, preservatives, chemicals, or hormones. Rather, they are made from the highest quality free range grass fed Angus beef.

"We aimed to create bully sticks that are just what a dog wants and needs," adds Dan Fernandez. "They smell natural, which is exactly what dogs love as well. The bully sticks are filled with protein, which helps maintain the dental and overall health of your dog, reducing plaque and tartar. The tendons, meanwhile, help to keep gums and teeth strong by gently flossing your dog's teeth."

For Wyldlife Pets, a dog is a member of the family. This is why they provide all natural dog treats that are of the highest possible quality. They have also included a 100% satisfaction guarantee, as they are confident that dog owners and dogs alike will love the sticks.
