April 21, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

St. George, UT: Maria Serbina, CEO & Founder of Maria Serbina Int. & PineLift, Inc., addresses a group of Realtors and other business owners at the WCBR luncheon in Saint George, UT in April 2015. She shares some of her marketing expertise in an effort to help Realtors and other business leaders to build and expand their visibility, create an expert and celebrity status online. Her approach provides WCBR members with some of her applied Marketing strategies that have been used for many of her clients in the past.

Over the years, Maria Serbina has become a mentor in social relations area by building her back bone as a social influence marketing expert and utilizing a variety of training systems designed to teach entrepreneurs important, but little know details about videos, successful new SEO (Social engine Optimization) strategies and how to utilize power pf Google+ Hangouts to their unbeatable advantage.

Because of her reputation Maria has been asked to speak at numerous events including Women Advancing and Girls in Tech Las Vegas Mentor moment.

All these events have held one clear direction and purpose; inspire entrepreneurs and to give them tools that they need to increase their profits in their area of expertise.

In her speech at WCBR luncheon Maria Serbina touches on controversial subjects of Real Estate business being a commodity and slashed commissions. She believes, "In order to be visible and not to be treated by clients as a commodity Realtors have to create an expert and celebrity status. I consider every business owner who is well-known to his or her target market a Celebrity."

Melinda Goodwin, Luxury Home Division Director Re/Max First Realty, said Maria's presentation is no BS style and very dynamic. Maria really engages the audience and pushes a few buttons.
