Ross Moore Law Announces Million Dollar Wrongful Death Settlement for Georgia Family After Fatal Crash

June 18, 2026

ATLANTA, GA - June 18, 2026 -
Ross Moore Law recently secured a $1 million policy limits settlement for the family of a Georgia resident killed when an at-fault driver turned left in front of his van, causing the vehicle to flip and pin him to the ground. The settlement represents the maximum available insurance coverage in the fatal crash case.

The case highlighted the complex legal challenges families face after losing a loved one in a traffic accident caused by another driver's negligence. Left-turn crashes remain among the most dangerous types of collisions, often resulting in catastrophic injuries or fatalities due to the physics of impact and vehicle dynamics. In this case, the at-fault driver's failure to yield right-of-way led to the devastating crash that claimed the victim's life.

"No settlement can replace a life," said Ross Moore, founder of Ross Moore Law. "Our responsibility in a wrongful death case is to protect the family, prove what happened, and make sure the insurance company understands the full weight of the loss."

Ross Moore Law wrongful death lawyer services encompass immediate evidence preservation, witness review, crash reconstruction coordination when necessary, insurance coverage analysis, and comprehensive damages documentation. The firm emphasizes the importance of acting quickly after a fatal accident to preserve critical evidence that may disappear over time. This systematic approach helps ensure families receive the maximum compensation available under the law.

The firm's approach to the case involved comprehensive evidence gathering and analysis. This included securing official crash reports, interviewing witnesses who observed the collision, reviewing vehicle damage patterns, and analyzing traffic control devices at the intersection. The legal team also worked to identify all available insurance coverage and built a detailed policy-limits demand that documented the full extent of the family's loss.

Families who have lost loved ones in fatal crashes caused by negligent drivers may benefit from legal consultation to understand their rights and options. Georgia law provides specific remedies for surviving family members, including compensation for medical expenses, funeral costs, lost income, and loss of companionship.

As a wrongful death lawyer representing families throughout Georgia and Tennessee, Ross Moore Law operates on a contingency fee basis, meaning clients pay no attorney fees unless compensation is recovered. The firm handles various personal injury matters, including car accidents, truck accidents, motorcycle accidents, pedestrian accidents, and premises liability claims.

Ross Moore Law is a personal injury law firm representing individuals and families in serious accident, catastrophic injury, and wrongful death cases across Georgia and Tennessee. The firm offers free consultations to help families understand their legal options during difficult times.
