

Brandt's Heating, Cooling & Electrical Reflects on Recognition in the Kokomo Tribune Best of Kokomo Awards

June 18, 2026

Kokomo, Indiana - June 18, 2026 -

Brandt's Heating, Cooling & Electrical has received recognition as the reigning second-place winner in both the Heating & Cooling and Electrical categories of the Kokomo Tribune Best of Kokomo Awards 2025. The local, family-owned business continues to serve the community with reliable heating, cooling, and electrical services, building on this community acknowledgment of its ongoing contributions.

The awards highlight the trust that residents and businesses in the Kokomo area place in the company for essential home and commercial comfort solutions. As a provider of comprehensive HVAC and electrical work, Brandt's Heating, Cooling & Electrical has operated in the region for more than two decades, maintaining a focus on quality workmanship and customer care. The recognition underscores the relationships built through consistent service across residential and commercial properties in Howard County and nearby locations.

Established as a family-owned and operated business since 2003, the company offers a full range of residential heating services, including furnace repair and replacement, heat pump maintenance, boiler service, and emergency heating support available around the clock. Its cooling expertise covers air conditioning repair, installation, and routine maintenance to help homeowners and businesses manage Indiana's seasonal demands. Technicians also handle water heater repairs, indoor air quality improvements, and whole-house generator installations.

On the electrical side, Brandt's Heating, Cooling & Electrical provides licensed services for panel upgrades, rewiring, new construction projects, and other electrical needs. All technicians are NATE-certified and EPA-certified, with ongoing training to stay current with industry standards and advancements in energy-efficient technologies. The company works on all major brands and equipment types, emphasizing honest pricing, free estimates on new equipment, and customized recommendations tailored to each property.

This latest recognition in the Best of Kokomo Awards reflects the continued community support the business has earned. "We are incredibly grateful for the support our customers continue to show us year after year. Being recognized in both the Heating & Cooling and Electrical categories is a reflection of the trust our community places in our team. We take pride in serving Kokomo and the surrounding areas, and this recognition motivates us to keep delivering the dependable service our customers deserve," said Lindsay Brandt, Marketing Coordinator of Brandt's Heating, Cooling & Electrical.

The company maintains a commitment to transparency and reliability in every interaction. From routine maintenance calls to complex installations and emergency repairs, the team prioritizes safety, efficiency, and customer satisfaction. Energy-efficient systems are a key part of the offerings, helping properties reduce long-term operating costs while supporting environmental responsibility. Brandt's also extends services to commercial refrigeration and provides solutions for both new builds and existing structures.

Serving Kokomo along with areas including Logansport, Monticello, Westfield, Noblesville, Peru, and other nearby communities, Brandt's Heating, Cooling & Electrical has become a trusted resource for local homeowners and businesses. The business philosophy centers on building long-term relationships through integrity, professionalism, and a dedication to exceeding expectations on every job. Technicians arrive prepared to handle a wide variety of challenges, ensuring properties remain comfortable and functional year-round.

The 2025 awards placement comes at a time when reliable heating, cooling, and electrical services remain essential for families and commercial operations throughout the region. As seasons change and systems face increased demands, the company continues to focus on preventive maintenance programs and prompt response times. Its approach combines technical expertise with a customer-centered mindset, resulting in solutions that prioritize durability and performance.

Leadership at Brandt's Heating, Cooling & Electrical credits the team's ongoing training and commitment to high standards for sustaining quality across all service areas. The company carries products from manufacturers known for longevity and efficiency, allowing clients to make informed decisions about upgrades and replacements. This focus has helped establish the business as a go-to provider for both routine needs and more involved projects, such as whole-house generator installations that enhance property resilience during power outages common in the area.

Community involvement and a strong local presence have played significant roles in the company's development. By maintaining operations rooted in Kokomo, Brandt's Heating, Cooling & Electrical contributes to the regional economy while providing employment opportunities for skilled technicians and support staff. The recognition in the Kokomo Tribune Best of Kokomo Awards serves as validation of these efforts and reinforces the importance of local businesses that prioritize service excellence.

As the company looks ahead, it remains dedicated to adapting to evolving industry practices and customer expectations. Whether addressing heating challenges during winter months, ensuring cooling systems perform through summer heat, or managing electrical projects, the team delivers consistent results. The second-place finishes in two key categories highlight the value residents place on dependable, professional service providers within their community.

Brandt's Heating, Cooling & Electrical is a family-owned provider of heating, cooling, electrical, and related services in Kokomo and surrounding Indiana areas. With licensed, certified technicians and a focus on quality, reliability, and customer care, the company delivers comprehensive solutions for residential and commercial properties.
