

Alex Mandry Legal Group Named Top Family Lawyer in Sunshine Coast by Family Lawyer Finder

July 06, 2026

July 06, 2026 -

Alex Mandry Legal Group has been recognised as the leading family law firm on the Sunshine Coast, securing the top position in Family Lawyer Finder's comprehensive directory of recommended family law firms for May 2026.

The recognition comes from Family Lawyer Finder, an established service that evaluates and lists family law practitioners across Australia. The directory's assessment considers multiple factors based on publicly available information, including client satisfaction, professional expertise and service quality, when determining rankings.

The firm, with decades of combined legal experience, distinguished itself through its comprehensive approach to family law matters. The firm provides services across divorce proceedings, child custody, property settlements, financial agreements, spousal maintenance and child support matters.

The recognition reflects the firm's commitment to delivering practical solutions and reliable advice to families navigating challenging legal situations. Its team understands that family law matters require both legal expertise and compassionate guidance, and works diligently with each client to help achieve their desired outcomes whilst maintaining transparent cost structures.

The firm's services extend beyond traditional divorce and separation matters to include conveyancing and wills and estates, providing comprehensive legal support for families at various life stages. Their approach emphasises protecting client interests whilst striving for equitable resolutions, particularly in complex areas such as property settlements and parenting arrangements.

Family Lawyer Finder's evaluation process examines publicly available information about client satisfaction, professional credentials, and service delivery standards. The directory serves as a resource for individuals seeking qualified Family Lawyers Sunshine Coast who can provide expert guidance through family law proceedings.

The recognition positions the firm amongst other established firms in the region, including Freedom Family Law, Pippa Colman Family Law, Shanahan Family Law, and Chomley Family Law, all of which feature in the directory's recommendations.

The firm serves clients throughout the Sunshine Coast region, offering expertise in navigating the complexities of family law matters. The firm's solicitors provide tailored legal representation designed to help ensure children's best interests remain paramount and secure clients' financial interests.

The firm maintains a focus on delivering high-quality legal services whilst ensuring costs remain transparent for clients facing the financial pressures often associated with family law proceedings. Their service model combines legal expertise with practical support throughout the entire legal process.

Alex Mandry Legal Group is offering initial consultations to assess individual circumstances and provide guidance on available legal options. The firm's solicitors remain committed to helping families achieve fair and sustainable resolutions to their legal challenges.
