Panchenko Law Firm Receives Super Lawyer Nomination Recognition

June 25, 2026

CHARLOTTE, NC - June 25, 2026 -
Panchenko Law Firm, a personal injury practice serving Matthews and the Charlotte metro area, has received recognition through the Super Lawyers nomination process, marking a significant professional milestone for the firm that has recovered more than $20 million for clients throughout the region.

The Super Lawyers nomination process, administered by Thomson Reuters, evaluates attorneys across 12 indicators of peer recognition and professional achievement. With no more than 5 percent of licensed North Carolina attorneys ultimately selected to the Super Lawyers list and no more than 2.5 percent selected to Rising Stars, the nomination process represents a meaningful marker of professional standing within the state's personal injury legal community.

The recognition reflects Panchenko Law Firm's established track record in complex commercial vehicle cases, including an $860,000 tractor-trailer settlement and a $485,000 commercial accident settlement. These results demonstrate the firm's specific litigation capability in navigating multi-party Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration regulatory liability, electronic logging device evidence preservation demands, and trucking company defense teams that deploy immediately after crashes.

"This Super Lawyer Nomination acknowledges the sophisticated commercial vehicle litigation discipline our firm brings to every case, particularly in tractor-trailer accidents where Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration evidence preservation and multi-party liability identification determine outcomes," said Dmitriy Panchenko, Founder of Panchenko Law Firm. "For Matthews and Charlotte metro crash victims facing trucking company defense teams on Highway 74, I-485, and I-85 corridors, this capability translates directly into stronger case results. Equally important is our bilingual service commitment, as North Carolina's contributory negligence standard poses particular risks for Spanish-speaking crash victims who may not understand that a single statement to an insurance adjuster can eliminate their entire claim."

The firm's bilingual English and Spanish legal representation ensures that Mecklenburg County and Union County's significant Spanish-speaking population has access to quality personal injury advocacy regardless of language barriers. This service helps in post-crash situations where early statements to insurance adjusters can eliminate claims under North Carolina's strict contributory negligence standard, which bars all recovery if an injured victim is found even one percent at fault.

Beyond the notable commercial vehicle settlements, Panchenko Law Firm's $20 million in total client recoveries includes a $1.2 million car accident verdict and a $615,000 car accident settlement. The firm handles motorcycle accidents, car accidents, truck accidents, rideshare accidents, pedestrian accidents, bicycle accidents, slip and fall cases, workers' compensation claims, premises liability matters, and wrongful death cases throughout Mecklenburg County, Union County, and the greater Charlotte metro area on a contingency fee basis with no upfront costs.

The Panchenko Law Firm Super Lawyer Nomination comes as the practice continues expanding its reach throughout the Charlotte metropolitan region, providing immediate response capabilities in North Carolina's contributory negligence environment, where the quality of legal representation from the first day after an accident often determines whether crash victims recover full compensation.

Panchenko Law Firm is a personal injury law firm based in Matthews, North Carolina, representing car accident victims, motorcycle riders, truck accident victims, and other injury clients throughout Mecklenburg County, Union County, and the Charlotte metro area. The firm has recovered more than $20 million for clients, including an $860,000 tractor-trailer settlement, and handles all cases on a contingency fee basis with no upfront costs and free case reviews available 24 hours a day in English and Spanish.
