

Website Redesign Completed For Rocklin Family Lawyer

May 09, 2016

May 09, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Jucebox Local Marketing Partners has recently completed a 4th website design and custom video project for Rocklin family lawyer, Terry L. Gilbeau. The website is a great resource for those needing representation for any family law matter. The newly designed website and video project can be accessed through <http://rocklinfamilylaw.com/>.

Terry Gilbeau, founder of Gilbeau Law, says: "Working together with Jucebox Local Marketing was a fantastic thing to do. They listened to our brief, understood exactly what we were looking for, and came up with something better than we could have ever hoped for. This is the fourth time we have worked with them, and we have always been 100% satisfied with the results."

The video, which addresses how to find a family law attorney and who may need a family law lawyer, can be accessed through <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=m3HiZOgklyA>. It discusses the fact that the law firm is not just highly experienced in the different facets of family law, but that they also have extensive knowledge of the judges and court employees, as well as local customs. This enables the law firm to provide their clients with the best possible representation so that they can start their new life the right way.

Because Gilbeau Law has now worked extensively with the marketing company, they have also created a video review of Jucebox Local Marketing Partners, in which they highlight the benefits they have experienced through their services. "I have retained Jucebox Local Marketing Partners to design a new website, and to 'clean up' an existing site that needed some serious TLC," says Terry Gilbeau. "In both cases, I was very pleased with her interest and follow-through with regards to the projects, and the work was completed on time (in fact, perhaps ahead of time) and according to budget. I am very pleased with the websites, and the service Rebekah has provided - more than competent skills, fair price, and excellent service! We look at Rebekah as an important member of our 'marketing team'."

For Jucebox Local Marketing Partners, the attention they gave to Gilbeau Law is what they give to all their clients, enabling them to create websites that attract new clients.
