

Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite Reinforces Commitment to Fernandina Beach Community with Expanded Family Law Resources

July 02, 2026

JACKSONVILLE, FL - July 02, 2026 -

Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite continues strengthening its presence in Nassau County through its Fernandina Beach family law office, providing comprehensive educational resources and legal guidance to help local residents navigate complex family law matters. The Jacksonville-based firm, distinguished as the only practice in Northeast Florida with three Board Certified Marital & Family Law Experts as managing partners, maintains its dedication to serving the Fernandina Beach community with accessible legal information and support.

The firm's ongoing commitment addresses the growing need for reliable family law resources in Nassau County, where residents often face challenges understanding their rights and options in matters ranging from divorce and child custody to military divorce and mediation. Through a multi-faceted approach to legal education, the firm delivers valuable information via blog articles, press releases, podcasts, and other educational materials designed to demystify Florida family law.

"Having local access to experienced family law resources makes a significant difference for Nassau County families facing legal challenges," said Jay Henderlite, Managing Partner at Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite. "Our Fernandina Beach office serves as more than just a legal practice ? it functions as an educational hub where community members can find reliable information about divorce, child custody, child support, and other critical family law matters without having to travel to Jacksonville or other distant locations."

The firm's educational initiatives cover the full spectrum of family law services, including adoption, alimony, marriage annulment, assisted reproductive technology law, collaborative divorce, LGBTQ+ family matters, modifications, parenting plans, paternity issues, and prenuptial and postnuptial agreements. Additionally, the practice provides specialized guidance for military families navigating divorce proceedings, recognizing the unique challenges and regulations that affect service members and their spouses.

Beyond traditional family law matters, Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite also assists Nassau County residents with related criminal law issues, including domestic violence cases, which often intersect with family law proceedings. This comprehensive approach ensures that clients receive thorough legal support across interconnected legal challenges.

The firm's investment in the Fernandina Beach community reflects a broader commitment to making quality legal resources accessible throughout Northeast Florida. By maintaining a physical presence in Nassau County and developing location-specific educational content, the practice helps bridge the gap between complex legal concepts and practical understanding for local residents.

Mediation services offered through the Fernandina Beach office provide an alternative dispute resolution option for families seeking to resolve conflicts outside the courtroom. These services, combined with collaborative divorce options, demonstrate the firm's commitment to helping families find constructive solutions that minimize conflict and preserve relationships when possible.

Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite operates as a full-service family and criminal law firm with deep roots in Northeast Florida. The practice distinguishes itself through its unique leadership structure featuring three Board Certified Marital & Family Law Experts as managing partners, a distinction unmatched in the region. The firm serves clients throughout Jacksonville and surrounding counties, providing comprehensive legal services in all aspects of family law and select criminal law matters.
