May 16, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

JMS Air Conditioning and Heating, a HVAC business in Studio City, CA, is promoting their air conditioning and heating services across the Los Angeles area. Specifically, they are using their Facebook page to attract more clientele. Committed to high quality, affordable, and reliable services, those in the Los Angeles area are already contacting the company in large amounts. More details are available on their Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/jmsacandheating>.

A representative from JMS Air Conditioning says: "As a HVAC company, we have always been a hands-on business. However, this doesn't mean that we shouldn't embrace the 21st century and the technology that it has to offer us. As such, we have launched an aggressive social media campaign through Facebook in order to get our name out there, and to enable our existing clients to contact us, and ask us questions in a more direct manner. We're very happy to see that the campaign is already showing signs of success."

The company offers AC and Heating Repair and Installation Services, AC Repair and Maintenance, AC Filter Replacements, and Air Handler Services. They offer these services for Ductless Mini Split AC Systems, Evaporator Coil Services, Duct Systems, Air Distribution Systems, Humidifiers, Dehumidifiers, and UV Air

Sanitizers.

One of the things the company is also doing through their Facebook campaign is thanking any customers who have left them a review. For instance, Norman F has said on Google+: "Called for appointment, came on time. Looked at the heater & inspected it found that if I had fixed it myself I could have made every one sick or worse. It had 3 cracks in the burner. Called his office & had some one out with in the hour to give me a price. The price was fair did the work the next day this was the 2nd time they installed a unit different house. The co. has been servicing me for the last 10 yrs. I also have a home warranty service but don't like their service people." This review has now also been shared across the new Facebook page in order to ensure more people become aware of the services offered by JMS.
