May 04, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Six-million-dollar-man and professional cutter from Alabama, Austin Shepard is sharing his training secrets on showmanship in his DVD, "Showing with Austin Shepard" now available on Cutting Horse Training Online.

With titles such as 2007 NCHA Open Futurity Champion, 2014 NCHA Open Super Stakes Reserve Champion, five-time Eastern Nationals Open Champion, and a reputation for riveting showmanship, Shepard's expertise is second to none.

People often wonder how Austin gets his horses so cowy, so electric and exciting.

Cutters around the world can now learn Austin's training and showing secrets, revealed on his DVD including: how to prepare a show horse for competition, his training philosophy and personal critiques of his own competition runs.

"Showing with Austin Shepard takes the mystery out of how to put more cow in your horse," Trainer and Cutting Horse Training Online co-owner Duncan Steele-Park said. "If you want to learn how to include more cow training into your program, then this is the DVD for you.?

Shepard's DVD also demonstrates and explains the importance of pre-run rituals, how to make show cuts, why to make everything cow related, how to present yourself to the judge, best positions for cuts, examples of working bad cattle and much more.

?By purchasing this DVD, you get timeless showing and training techniques,? Steele-Park said. ?You can watch Austin over-and-over again and catch something new every time.?

Cutting Horse Training Online is now offering Austin Shepard's DVD on their website www.cuttinghorsetrainingonline.com along with a one-month free membership trial to CHTO's exclusive content with purchase of DVD.

?We're in a business based around showing,? trainer Austin Shepard said. ?In my opinion, it's performance-based sport and [this DVD] helps you best prepare for showing and train the best cow horse that you can.?

Members can just login and click on Austin Shepard in the list of trainers where they can purchase his DVD. For new members who would like to get a free one month trial, click the following link and use coupon code: SHEPARD to join.
