

Bully Sticks Introduced For Better Nutrition And Dental Health Of Dogs

May 12, 2016

May 12, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Irvine, California based Majestic Pet Products has announced the launch of their Bully Sticks for dogs. This all natural snack for dogs comes in a variety of package quantities.

Jim Otto with Majestic Pet states, "We're pleased to be able to provide these pet supplies to our customers, and to do it through the Amazon marketplace, where we feel they will get the attention that they deserve."

Majestic Pet Products states that the sticks are nutritious and tasty treats for dogs that not only give them a snack, but also help to clean their teeth as well. Otto states that by cleaning the teeth and gums, the Bully Sticks help with overall dental health for dogs.

"They're a treat for your pets that you can feel good about giving them, and something that they will love," Otto says.

The company states that their 100 percent natural quality chews are now available on Amazon in quantities of 12, 24, and 36. They are available in 6 or 12 inch sizes as well.

Majestic Pet is a provider of quality pet treats and supplies. Founded in the 1990's, they began with dog collars and leashes, and have grown over the years to now include beds, crates, and a variety of supplies for cats and other animals.

Otto says that the company's mission is and has always been to help pet owners find quality products that offer great value. The company prides itself on their customer service, and ensures that all of their products are safe for pets. The company moved their operations to Irvine, CA, in 2011, and has since been expanding their product lines. Otto states that additional new products are expected to roll out on a regular basis, although no official word has been given as to what or when.

The Amazon marketplace now has ordering capabilities for the company's natural chews. Those interested can learn more about the Bully Sticks by visiting the official Majestic Pet Products page on the marketplace, or by visiting the company on their official website, where the products can also be ordered.
