Jenaluca has released a product on the number one shopping portal Amazon that is gaining many positive reviews from customers. The product called Herb Scissors are a multipurpose kitchen shear that is very versatile for different age groups. According to the company, it is especially proven to be good for the elderly.

The elderly usually have problems around the kitchen because their hands are not as steady as younger people. That means, they will not be capable of properly handling knives and other sharp implements. The company highlighted that the herb scissors are ideal for the elderly because they are finely balanced and made to hold in the hand comfortably.

The company stated that the herb scissors are good for older people and those with shaky hands. The kitchen shear reduces the tedious task of cutting and chopping herbs and vegetables. The blades are not only finely balanced but are uniquely sharp. The kitchen tool allows for two snips to equate to ten knife chops. That means, it is ideal for chopping herbs from the herb garden or those bought in the store.

A representative from Jenaluca remarked, ?the herb scissors are made with finely balanced blades that are ideal for the more mature hands of the elderly. The kitchen tool also comes with comfortable handles to make it easy to use for older people. These are soft grips with a TPR interior handle that is lightweight and soft to the touch.?

The herb scissors are also made from stainless steel which explains why it is so sharp. According to Jenaluca, this means the kitchen shear will not rust or damage easily. Additionally, it is safe enough to be cleaned in the dishwasher.

The Jenaluca Herb Scissors are sold exclusively on the giant shopping portal, Amazon. Online shoppers have lauded the kitchen tool for being affordable and sold below $15. Additionally customers have liked that the kitchen shear comes with a 100% lifetime guarantee. This means that if there are any problems customers can get a refund or replace their culinary herb scissors with no questions asked.
