Jenaluca has released a product on the online shopping marketplace Amazon that is being praised as a must-have kitchen gadget. The product is called Herb Scissors and is steadily becoming many cooking enthusiasts? favourite kitchen tool. The company recently highlighted that the kitchen tool was a safe gadget for younger kids to utilize.

Parents and adults usually have problems with young children deciding to help out with food preparation in the house. This is because they fear that children can harm themselves while using sharp instruments and blades. The company says that this dilemma is now solved with the introduction of the Jenaluca Herb Scissors. The versatile kitchen shear can fit comfortably in the hands of children and provide a safe and secure sharp tool for cutting and chopping in the kitchen.

Children and teenagers may also wish to start cooking either to help out in the home or for school projects such as with home economics. The multipurpose herb scissors from Jenaluca provides the ideal choice as a cutting tool for teenagers as it can become both useful and fun.

?One problem with having teenagers around the home is that they start becoming curious about activities in the kitchen. Instead of having children using knives and other sharp implements, our herb scissors can be a cutting tool substitute. They are useful for not only snipping herbs but other food items which can be placed directly onto plates and pans,? stated a spokesperson from Jenaluca.

The spokesperson would further remark, ?The herb scissors does its job with minimal hassle and creates little mess. Herbs and other food items are cut in perfectly sized pieces with the sharp finely balanced blades which are suitable for use by children and teenagers.?

The Jenaluca Herb Scissors is sold to online shoppers exclusively on the online portal Amazon at an affordable price. The kitchen shear has a cover that doubles as a cleaning comb to brush away any herbs or food items clinging to blades.
