May 10, 2016 -

Logan, Utah, April 10, 2016?In the spirit of Mother's Day, Express Employment Professionals, among the most prominent staffing agencies in Logan, UT, launched the outcome of an exclusive study presenting the views of working mothers.

The survey of 1,059 working moms and dads was conducted in May 2016. Participants were asked, ?Would you work if you didn?t have to?? Sixty-two percent of working moms stated "Yes," compared with 69 percent of working dads who stated the very same.

In addition, Express released the responses from a study of companies on the treatment of moms and dads in the office. Participants were asked, ?Do you provide maternity leave for the birth or adoption of a child?? Three-quarters (75 percent) of business stated, "Yes."

When it concerns paternity leave, nevertheless, the story is a bit various. Simply under half of the surveyed companies (49 percent) provide paternity leave.

Lots of companies do provide other advantages also, according to the study. Two-thirds (67 percent) stated they allow working fathers and mothers to make the most of versatile hours, while 26 percent stated they offer other kinds of advantages, and 7 percent reported permitting working moms and dads to telecommute.

?We employ several working parents here at Express,? said Doug Anthony, franchise owner of the Logan Express office.

?Along with our clients, we do our best in providing a work environment that allows flexibility to accommodate the needs of their families,? added Anthony.
