

Cortes Law Firm Announces Elaine Pok-Wright Named to 2026 Rising Stars

July 27, 2026

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK - July 27, 2026 -

Cortes Law Firm announces that probate attorney Elaine Pok Wright has been selected for inclusion in the 2026 Rising Stars list by Super Lawyers, a rating service that recognizes outstanding lawyers who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement.

The Rising Stars designation is awarded to no more than 2.5 percent of attorneys in each state. The selection process involves peer nominations, evaluations of professional achievement, and independent research. Recipients must be either 40 years old or younger, or have been in practice for 10 years or less.

Elaine Pok Wright joined Cortes Law Firm after earning her Juris Doctor from the University of Tulsa College of Law, where she concentrated in Native American Law and founded the Asian Law Student Association. She previously completed her undergraduate studies in Statistics and Human Geography at the National University of Singapore before moving to Oklahoma to pursue her legal career.

As a probate attorney at the Oklahoma City-based firm, Pok Wright guides families through each phase of estate administration, from preparing and filing probate pleadings to managing court requirements and overseeing final distributions. Her practice encompasses formal court proceedings to validate wills, estate asset organization, creditor matter resolution, and estate closing filings.

"Elaine brings exceptional precision and efficiency to our probate practice," said Steve Cortes, founder of Cortes Law Firm. "Her ability to balance the technical requirements of estate administration with genuine compassion for the families we serve exemplifies the standard of excellence we strive to maintain. This recognition from Super Lawyers validates what our clients have experienced firsthand - that she provides outstanding legal guidance during difficult times."

Pok Wright's approach to probate law combines meticulous attention to legal detail with strong communication skills that help families understand complex estate matters. She handles various aspects of estate administration, including will validation and execution, intestate succession cases, small estate affidavit assistance, and estate tax planning. Her fluency in both English and Mandarin Chinese allows her to serve a diverse client base throughout Oklahoma.

The recognition comes as Cortes Law Firm continues to expand its estate planning and probate services throughout Oklahoma. The firm, which has provided legal services for over 25 years, specializes in comprehensive estate administration, trust management, and probate litigation.
