

The Brown Firm Expands Personal Injury Services to Better Serve The Greater Okatie and Bluffton Community

July 30, 2026

OKATIE, SC - July 30, 2026 -
The Brown Firm, a personal injury law practice with over 30 years of experience, announces expanded services and enhanced legal support for accident victims throughout the Okatie area and surrounding communities of Bluffton, Hilton Head Island, and Hardeeville.

The expansion comes as personal injury cases continue to rise across South Carolina, with the firm positioning itself to meet growing demand for experienced legal representation in car accidents, truck collisions, motorcycle crashes, slip and fall incidents, medical malpractice claims, and wrongful death cases. The firm's Okatie office, located at 110 Traders Cross Suite 101, serves as a central hub for clients seeking comprehensive legal advocacy following accidents caused by negligence.

"Our approach combines medical insight with legal expertise to build stronger cases for our clients," said Harry Brown Jr., founder of The Brown Firm. "Having practiced as a chiropractor for ten years before entering law, I understand how trauma affects the body and how insurance companies attempt to minimize injury claims. This perspective allows us to anticipate defense strategies and maximize compensation for those we represent."

The Brown Firm's responsive personal injury team operates on a contingency fee basis, ensuring clients face no upfront legal costs and only pay if the firm successfully recovers compensation. This approach removes financial barriers for accident victims seeking justice while they focus on physical and emotional recovery.

The firm's expansion includes strengthened resources for case preparation, with attorneys treating every case as if it will proceed to trial. This thorough preparation strategy has proven effective in negotiations with insurance companies, often resulting in higher settlements without the need for lengthy court proceedings.

Beyond traditional legal services, the practice emphasizes comprehensive client support that addresses both immediate legal needs and long-term recovery considerations. The firm's multiple office locations throughout the Southeast combine personalized attention typical of local practices with the resources and reach of a regional personal injury firm.

The greater Bluffton-Okatie area office serves as a strategic location for residents of SC seeking experienced personal injury representation. The firm handles diverse case types, from routine vehicle accidents to complex medical malpractice claims, providing specialized knowledge for each practice area.

Those who want to learn more about our Okatie Law Office can schedule consultations to discuss their cases and understand their legal options. The firm's commitment to client education includes providing detailed information about the legal process, potential compensation, and realistic case timelines.

The Brown Firm maintains offices in multiple locations, including Atlanta, Savannah, Fayetteville, and Athens, in addition to its South Carolina presence. The firm's growth reflects its dedication to serving local communities while maintaining the highest standards of legal representation. With decades of combined experience, the legal team continues to advocate aggressively for accident victims, ensuring they receive fair compensation for injuries, lost wages, medical expenses, and pain and suffering.
