The Pope Firm Relocates Kingsport Office to Expanded Downtown Location

July 29, 2026

KINGSPORT, TN - July 29, 2026 -

The Pope Firm has relocated its Kingsport bankruptcy law office to a new downtown location at 136 W Main Street, Suite 200, Kingsport, TN 37660. The move positions the firm in a more accessible location for clients throughout the Kingsport area seeking bankruptcy and debt relief legal services.

The relocation reflects the firm's continued commitment to serving individuals and businesses in Kingsport who are facing financial challenges. The new office maintains the firm's full range of bankruptcy services, including Chapter 7, Chapter 11, and Chapter 13 bankruptcy filings, along with comprehensive debt consolidation and debt relief options for clients struggling with overwhelming financial obligations.

"This relocation allows us to better serve the Kingsport community from a centralized downtown location," said Charles Pope, founding attorney at The Pope Firm. "Our new office provides improved accessibility for clients who need to get directions to the new Kingsport location while maintaining the same level of professional bankruptcy legal services our clients have come to expect."

The Pope Firm specializes in helping individuals and businesses navigate complex bankruptcy proceedings.

The firm assists clients with eliminating unsecured debts such as medical bills and credit card debt through Chapter 7 bankruptcy, restructuring payment plans through Chapter 13 bankruptcy, and helping businesses reorganize through Chapter 11 bankruptcy. The firm also provides protection against foreclosure, wage garnishment, and creditor harassment through the automatic stay provisions available in bankruptcy proceedings.

"Moving to this new location demonstrates our ongoing dedication to the Kingsport community," added Pope. "We understand that financial difficulties can affect anyone, and having an easily accessible office location is crucial for clients who need immediate assistance with bankruptcy filings or debt relief solutions."

The firm's Kingsport office serves clients throughout the region who are facing various financial challenges, including overwhelming medical debt, business bankruptcy needs, student loan difficulties, and threats of foreclosure or repossession. The office provides comprehensive bankruptcy means test evaluations to determine eligibility for different bankruptcy chapters and helps clients understand which bankruptcy option best suits their specific financial circumstances.

The new Kingsport office location has been updated on the firm's Google Business Profile, ensuring clients can easily find the updated address and access information. Those seeking to schedule a consultation with the best bankruptcy attorneys in the Kingsport area can visit the new downtown office for a comprehensive evaluation of their financial situation.

The Pope Firm, led by Charles Pope who brings over 25 years of bankruptcy law experience, maintains offices throughout Tennessee. The firm focuses exclusively on bankruptcy law and debt relief services, providing specialized expertise in personal and business bankruptcy cases. The firm's approach emphasizes ethical bankruptcy solutions while keeping clients informed throughout the entire legal process, from initial consultation through discharge of debts.
